ABSTRACT

The guide was developed to assist professionals working with American Indian people as a resource in obtaining printed and non-printed materials on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome. The resource guide is divided into the following sections: films (4), books (5), bibliographies (2), pamphlets (16), posters (5), slides (2), training curriculum (3), and projects (5). Each of the sections briefly describes the materials, including cost and availability. Some of the topics presented are: "Alcohol! Crisis for the Unborn"; "Human Studies"; "Alcoholism Problems in Women and Children"; "Alcohol and Pregnancy"; "When You Drink, Your Unborn Baby Does, Too!"; "Drugs and Pregnancy"; and "Fetal Alcohol Syndrome Characteristics." Also included are four other sources for information and materials on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome. (ERB)
